MARYLAND. As stated in the Star some days since, Maryland has undoubtedly adopted the free State Constitution. We sincerely congratulate her slaveholders on the fact that after the 1st proximo they are to be rid of their incumbrance. Had the new Constitution been defeated, nearly every slave in the State capable of running off would have "absquatulated," leaving their owners with those too young, too old, too lame or too sick to labor, upon their hands, to be fed and clothed by them under the provisions of the old law of the State, which makes it obligatory on Maryland's slaveholders to do so. The adoption of the new Constitution makes their support hereafter chargeable upon the communities in which they respectively

With A No. 1 negro men selling in Charlesen at $100 in gold, and A No. 1 negro girls elling in Richmond at $30 in gold ($1,000 in Confederate noney), as at present, and with negroes utterly unsalable in Maryland at one dollar per dozen-the current value of a single string of A No. 1 Connecticut onions-there existed no prospect that in the course of human events the slaves of Maryland could ever again have any market value to be paid for. Thus is exploded, in few words, the plea for the justice and propriety of "compensated emancipation." Compensation by the General Government, ample and liberal, was offered by those in Congress known as ultra antislavery men, ere their market value was utterly destroyed by the rebellion, but was blindly rejected by the Maryland representatives who claimed to be the especial guardians of the interests of the State's slaveholders. The latter, as a class, have been the only active and influential aiders and abettors of the rebellion in the State, and in aiding and abetting it have simply aided to get butchered their own children, relatives and dependents whom they encouraged to go South and fight against their country, and to utterly destroy the value of their property for the benefit of which not a few of them elected to become as thorough traitors at heart as the most of the slaveholders in Jeff Davis's dominions.

We pity them sincerely, though convinced that the swift retribution that has overtaken them is well deserved.

Two great results are, however, immediately to flow from the adeption of the free State constitution. The first is the effect of this action of the people of Maryland upon the prospects of the rebellion at home and abroad. It forever destroys the hope that Maryland can possibly become a part of the Southern Confederacy, and makes it certain that Kentucky, Missouri and Delaware will speedily take similar measures to assure themselves to the Union, past peradventure. The second great result of this action of Maryland will speedily be realized in the altered prospects of the State in the matters of progress and the development of her industrial resources of every description, which, though dormant up to this time through the influence of slavery, are second to those of no other territory in the world of the same dimensions. The increase in twenty-five years of the aggregate wealth of her people, of their general intelligence and industry, of the advantages they will derive (from the State's necessary new policy) for the education of their children at schools and in workshops, will pay her back twenty fold as much as her people, one and all, have lost through the war, including the former market value of her slaves.

OFFICIAL WAR BULLETINS. Active Pursuit of Hood-Bis Force Thirty Thousand-Our Army in the Bestof Spirits-Capture of Ship's Gap-Details of Late Movements.

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, October 18, 1861, 10 p. m. 5 Major Gen. Dix, New York:

The following dispatch has been received: "CHATTANOOGA, TENN., Oct. 17, 3 p. m .-Hood's main force was about Lafavette last night, and Sherman at Ship's Gap. The report of yesterday that Hood was approaching Carpenter's Ferry is a mistake. He had not crossed Lookout Mountain last night.

"J. M. SCHOFIELD, Major General." Another official dispatch, dated at Chattanooga yesterday, is as follows:

"I left General Sherman at Ship's Gap, in Taylor's Ridge, at dark last night. The General and army are all right and in the best of spirits. Hood won't fight, though offered battle repeatedly. His dreadful repulse at Allatoona has made him very cautious. General Slocum is all right at Atlanta, with plenty of provisions and forage. "Hood's raid has produced no military result as yet. If he fails to invade Tennessee, as he has promised his men, he will lose by desertion twice as many as he has captured. The losses in men thus far have been in our favor. "Hood demanded the surrender of Resaca and Dalton, and said, if surrendered, white officers and soldiers would be paroled in a few days; but that if the posts were carried by assault, no prisoners would be taken. Rome is all right."

General Sherman: "SHIP'S GAP, 5 p. m., Oct. 16 .- We took Ship's Gap to-day, capturing a part of the 21th North Carolina. Two corps are represented

"W. T. Sherman, Major General."

"Deserters from Hood's army report his force "The strength of his cavalry is not known

"There is no additional news from the Tennessee river, except that Roddy's forces moved from Tuscumbia yesterday.

"G. H. THOMAS, Maj. Gen." "CHATTANOOGA, Oct. 17, 10 p. m .- The rear of Hood's army left Lafayette, going south, at daylight this morning. " J. M. SCHOFIELD, Maj. Gen."

The country south and southwest of Lafayette is exceedingly difficult for an inferior army, vigorously pursued, consisting of narrow valleys parallel to the ranges of Taylor's Ridge and Lookout Mountains, broken by rough hills, and destitute of food for man or beast, until you reach the Coose river, a distance equal to three days' forced marches. Yesterday morning, at three o'clock, a detachment of two hundred quartermaster's employees returned to Alexandria, bringing with them twelve guerrillas and a drove of horses, which the guerrillas had gobbled up and were endeavoring to take to Early's army. The guerrilias were captured near White Plains, and they report that another body of horse thieves had been in the vicinity a few hours before their capture. No guerrillas have made their appearance on this side of White Plains for several days, but on Monday night a few were seen several miles above that point. From Manassas to White Plains the Quartermaster's men have cut down all the timber on both sides of the railroad for a distance of half a mile, and destroyed everything that would afford the least shelter for guerrillas. The work is still progressing, and on Mon day evening the most advanced workmen were at a point about two miles above White Plains. These quartermasters' men commenced their work at Manassas and cut towards White Plains. The timber between Manassas and Alexandria has not been cut as yet, but it is expected that the Pennsylvania troops who are stationed in the vicinity will soon be set to work clearing it out

PENNSYLVANIA BLECTION. The Official Union Majority on the Home Vote 1,954 thus far.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19 .- A dispatch from Harrisburg correspondent says the official vote of fifty-nine counties has been reliably tabled at that city, which show a Democratic gain of 16,292, and a Union gain of 2,919, over the gubernatorial vote of 1863. The excess of these gains, 13,373, deducted from the Union majority of 1863, namely, 15,325, leaves a Union majority of 1,952, with the counties of Clarion, Forrest, Jefferson, Mercer, Venango, Wyoming, and York, yet to be heard from officially.

The Pennsylvania Election. GENERAL KOONTZ (UNION) CHOSEN IN THE SIX TEENTH DISTRICT FOR CONGRESS.

[Dispatch to the Philadelphia Inquirer.] HARRISBURG, Oct. 18 .- In my letter of yesterday I stated that it was hardly possible to elect the Union candidate in the Sixteenth District, against the home majority of H. Coffroth, Democrat. But the information received here to-day, from the examination of the army returns is, that General Wm. H. Koontz will be elected. The Democratic majority of six hundred and ninety-seven on the home vote is already swamped by the soldiers' votes, and the information warrants the assertion that Koontz will have a surplus of five or six hundred after whipping Coffroth.

SEVENTH WARD LINCOLN AND JOHNSON CLUB.—In pursuance to a call, a spirited meeting was held at Island Hall last evening by the citizens of the Seventh Ward, for the purpose of terming a Lincoln and Johnson Club. Justice F. A. Boswell was called to the Chair. and C. C. Anderson appointed Secretary.

The Chair stated the immediate object of the meeting to be for the purpose of making arrangements to join in the torch light procession on Friday night. Mr. J. R. Elvans inquired if the object was simply to form a temporary organization, or was it intended that the organization was to be permanent? The Chair replied the organization was to be permanent, to continue after the present campaign. He remarked that the Dem Jack-Ass. held weekly meetings at the other end of the ward, and he thought that there were yet Union men enough in the ward to form at least, as respectable an association. Mr. Elvans hoped that the association would be a permanent one, so that there would be no need of organizing for each campaign He stated that the city club had what was termed a "black book" in which it was proposed to place the names of all persons who were not favorable to the election of Mr. Lincoln, and hoped that after the names of the members of the Seventh Ward club were procured that they would be sent to the executive committee of the city club. By this means those in the Seventh Ward who held offices and who were not true to the Union-who had never been heard to utter a Union sentiment—could be reached. If McClellan was elected they intended to submit and wait their time, but if he is not elected all who have not been true will be looked to. On motion of Mr. Peter Hepburn, the initiation fee was fixed at $1.

Mr. Elvans stated that it was proposed that the procession should start at 7 o'clock, and in their route they would take in Maryland avenue, from the Capitol to 7th street, and thence to the city. The executive committee proposed to furnish lanterns, torches, &c., and had prepared 500 of the former and about 1,000 of the latter, besides Roman candles. The question of music should be considered, and he stated that he knew a band who would play for any Lincoln and Johnson club provided no money was offered them. This band belongs to Finley Hospital, and were all true men.

Mr. P. Hepburn moved the appointment of an executive committee; carried.

Messrs. W. T. Ford, G. White, P. Hepburn

and George Collison were appointed; and the Chair (Mr. Boswell) was added as chairman. Mr. John Webster was elected treasurer. C. M. Wheeler was selected as marshal for the ward, and various committees were appointed to complete the arrangements; and the meeting adjourned to to-night.

CHARGE OF OBTAINING MONEY UNDER Handy had before him the case of Herman Brangiss, who was arrested yesterday by Sergeant Milstead on the charge of obtaining money on false pretenses. Brangiss is a young German, said to have been recently engaged in New York in the substitute business, and is a bar-tender by profession. He has been in the city but a few weeks, and the Germans on whom he has operated assert, living on his wits. He was first arrested for forging the FALSE PRETENSES.—This morning, Justice name of Martin Whaltman, of 12th street, and subsequently on the charge of obtaining money on false pretenses. The first witness was John Loeleger, (living near the Soldiers' Home,) who testified that Waltman and the accused came to his place about the 1st instant; and that ten or twelve days afterwards Brangiss made his appearance and stated that Waltman had driven his buggy over a woman, whom he named, and she demanded of Waltman $50, and that Waltman wanted to borrow that amount from witness. The prisoner at the same time told witness that he would leave a note with him as collateral security, and witness thinking that all was right, took the note and gave him $20. The note is dated Eeptember 11th, and purports to have been drawn by Philip Loer in favor of W.O. H. Brunger, or order, for $200 at thirty days, endorsed by Martin Woflamer, 529 12th street. Mr. W. testified that the endorsement was not made by him.

Thomas Helmuth, who keeps a restaurant at he corner of Tenth and C streets, testified that the prisoner borrowed $5 from him and afterwards $30, giving him as collateral a note dated the same as the above in favor of the same party, purporting to be signed by G. Smith, 229 B street south, for $500, whom he represented to live on Capitol Hill. This note is endorsed by B. Breder, Atlantic Hotel, corner of New Bowery and Oliver street. There was also another note before the Justice of the same date as the above for $100, purporting to be signed by A. Kurger, 219 Twenieth street, and it was stated by those present that there are a number of other persons who have been served in the same manner, but hey were not present, and the Justice decided o commit Brangiss to jail for court to answer he charge of obtaining money under false pre-GONE AND DONE IT .- This morning four more of the young people of Washing'on were made happy, matrimonially. At an early hour ceremony No. 1 took place in the Seventh Ward-Rev. George W. Samson uniting Dr.

Thomas C. Smith, of the Northern Liberties, to Miss Cornelia F. Hazard, of the Island. The young couple, after receiving the congratulations of their friends, (and there was a goodly company presnt,) left for New York, where their honeymoon will be spent. St. Peters Church, Capitol Hill, was the scene this morning of another marriage ceremony-Rev. Father Boyle uniting in the bonds of mat. rimony, Mr. Richard Boisean, one of the Press Corps, (Reporter of the National Repulican,) to Miss Ellen Seville Davis, daughter of Thomas I. Davis, of the Sixth Ward. There was quite a large company present to see the knot well tied, and that being done satisfactorily, the young couple were the recipients of many good wishes, after which they left the church for the railroad station, and departed for a wedding trip North.

FINED AND HELD TO BAIL .- This morning, young man, who gave his name as Isaac Sell, was taken before Justice Miller upon a charge of being drunk and disorderly. The evidence against his was given by Madame said that the defendant had frequently visited her house, and always behaved himself well until last night, when, he being late, was told he could not come in. and he threw bricks through the widow, and when the Madame went out for the police, threw stones at her. The Justice fined the defendant $20, which he paid. The Justice then questioned the Madame as to what kind of a house she kept, and she replied that she kept "a ladies' boarding house." The Justice then ordered her to give bail in $1,000 for court.

CHARGE OF BIGAMY .- Yesterday, officer Duvall arrested a woman named Anna Warner on the charge of bigamy, preferred by Robert Warner, and took her to the Sixth Ward station, where she gave security for a further hearing. It appears that she is one of the kind who believe in the doctrine that it is not good for man, or woman either, to be alone. Warner states that he married her in Philadelphia about seven years since, she then representing herself as a widow; and subsequently he left and went to Virginia. While he was absent she married a soldier in Philadelphia named Wield, and after he started to the front she tollowed him to this city. Warner hearing of her doings came to this city and caused her arrest, and found her getting ready to marry another Suspicion rested on his sons, and one was arrested yesterday by Detective Barry. The one arrested is named William, who is about 14 years old. A younger son told the officer that William held the window open while an older boy named Stephen Hopkins got in the house and took the money. Hopkins was subsequently arrested, and with the son William is in custody at the Detective's prison awaiting a further hearing. They refuse to tell what was done with the money.

The portion of the canal which was unguarded is now protected by an effective force of infantry, and the boats that arrived yesterday came down with guards on each.
